

AUTHORIZATION AND RELEASE

I hereby authorize any Department of Defense agency, military department, military Chief of Chaplains, and their respective office, organization, supervisor, or agents, whether military or civilian, to provide any and all information related to my service, including, but not limited to, opinions concerning my character or fitness for ministry (including unfavorable information, if any) to the Endorsing Agent for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (“the Church”). I hereby further release any individual or agency, any Department of Defense agency, military department, military Chief of Chaplains, and their respective office, organization, supervisor, or agents, whether military or civilian, providing such information from any and all claims of loss or liability for damages of whatever kind or nature arising out of providing such information to the Church’s Endorsing Agent pursuant to this Authorization and Release, excepting only the communication of knowingly false information. This Authorization and Release shall remain valid until I give written notice of its revocation to the Church’s Endorsing Agent.

I hereby waive any and all claims of loss or liability that I may have now or in the future against the Church or any of its leadership or employees for the sharing, receipt or use of any such information in connection with administering the Church’s chaplaincy program.

This authorization and release is given in consideration of the review of my application for endorsement or the continuation of endorsement.

A facsimile or photocopy of this authorization shall be valid as an original.
