

PLANNING MUTUAL ACTIVITIES IN 2 EASY STEPS

STEP 1. Make some lists answering the following questions:

What are your interests? What do you like to do by yourself? With a group?

Interests

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

What knowledge, skills, and abilities will help you prepare for your future family? Education? Mission? Career?

Preparation

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Who in your family, ward, stake, or community could you or your class or quorum serve? What service would help you complete your Personal Progress, Duty to God, or Scouting experiences and projects?

Service

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Mutual activities should:

- Strengthen testimonies of Jesus Christ.
- Invite the Spirit (see Galatians 5:22–23).
- Include youth in planning and responsibility.
- Have a specific purpose.
- Begin with opening exercises.
- Be fun!